

Biography

Dr. Rita Womack is one of the most anointed prophetic voices given to the body of Christ. Her passion for the ministry and sensitivity to the voice of God has allowed her to become a highly prolific preacher, teacher, and evangelist, sharing extensively in many revivals and conferences throughout the United States, Canada, Korea, and many other countries, as well as national television. Dr. Womack has ministered with Bishop T.D. Jakes, the late Bishop Gilbert E. Patterson, Bishop Charles E. Blake and many highly esteemed men and women of God. Born in Virginia and raised in Washington D.C., Dr. Womack heeded the call to ministry at an early age, under the leadership of Bishop Sherman Howard. Dr. Womack received her Doctorate from Rhema Theological Seminary and College.

Inspired by God, motivated and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, she began flowing effectively in her purpose and destiny as an evangelist. Dr. Womack has been in full-time ministry for more than 25 years, and is totally committed to serve. Aside from her own personal ministry, Dr. Womack is founder of Latter Rain Miracle Ministries of Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Womack is an associate minister of West Angeles Church of God in Christ where Bishop Charles E. Blake is pastor.

Dr. Womack hosts annual prophetic conferences, which have drawn renowned anointed speakers such as Prophetess Juanita Bynum, Pastor Paula White, Darlene Bishop, Sheryl Brady and many others. Upon receiving numerous requests for mentoring guidance in ministry, she formed "Mentoring in Ministry with Dr. Rita Womack", which trains and equips men and women in the areas of ministry gifts and callings.

Dr. Womack is truly an anointed vessel of the Lord, who is totally sold-out to the ministry of Jesus Christ. She willingly releases herself to God, and her life is shaped by and centered on God. Dr. Womack is indeed a woman of faith, excellence and action, who aspires to aid the body of Christ by bringing them into the knowledge of the manifested power of God through both the Holy Writ, and the prophetic utterance.
